

We know adolescent sexuality is more complicated than just wearing a condom, and we invite you to submit your exciting work on the broad social determinants of adolescent sexual health...

The Centre for Urban Health Initiatives (CUHI), along with the Mark S. Bonham Centre for Sexual Diversity Studies, the LaMarsh Centre for Research on Violence and Conflict Resolution, the York Institute for Health Research, the Centre for Urban Schooling, the Gendering Adolescent AIDS Prevention project, Planned Parenthood Toronto, Toronto Public Health, and the University of Toronto Sexual Education and Peer Counseling Centre invites you to...

2009 Student Symposium on Urban Youth and the Determinants of Sexual Health

This is a FREE symposium that will be held on Thursday, March 26, 2009

1st Floor Library, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education

252 Bloor St. W. Toronto

We are calling for submissions

Research-focused or artistically-focused (ie. film, photography, theatre, music, spoken word, etc.) on any of the following areas:

- HIV/AIDS prevention, sexual health and harm reduction
- Intersectional approaches to equity and the social determinants of adolescent sexual health
- Exploring the impact of sexual diversity on health
- Improving youth access to sexual health services and education
- Participatory methodologies that promote youth involvement, leadership and community development
- Leveraging youth media for sexual health promotion

A total of three awards will be granted to students in categories of oral, poster, and artistic presentation.

The final deadline for abstract submissions is Wednesday, February 25, 2009
For more information visit www.cuhi.utoronto.ca